Wedding Cost and Honorariums

---

CHURCH COST

The cost to operate and maintain the church is quite high. While it would be desired to offer the church without cost for special occasions - it is just not possible. Every time the church doors are opened and the building is being used, people are opening and closing, and people are having to clean the building... it is costing the church money. So that we might be the best steward of God's resources these fees are necessary for special events.
